Implementation of Security Council resolution 1390 (2002) by the Czech Republic

1. Freezing of funds and financial assets

The application of measures included in operative paragraph 2 (a) is ensured at the national level by Act No. 48/2000 concerning measures in respect of the Taliban Afghan movement and government regulations No. 164/2000 concerning measures in respect of the Taliban Afghan movement and No. 327/2001 concerning further measures in respect of the Taliban Afghan movement, adopted on the basis of resolutions 1267 (1999) and 1330 (2000). The list created by the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1267 (1999) forms an enclosure to the above government regulations and its updated versions are sent to the Ministry of Finance and the Czech National Bank which refer them to other financial institutions.

2. Restrictions on travelling

The prevention of entry pursuant to operative paragraph 2 (b) is ensured by the inclusion of the persons put on the lists of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1267 (1999) in the register of personae non gratae.

3. Arms embargo

The compliance with the commitments arising from operative paragraph 2 (c) is fully covered in the Czech Republic by Act No. 38/1994 concerning foreign trade in military material and Decree No. 560/1991 on the conditions for issuing licences on imports and exports of goods and services as amended by later regulations. These legal norms, regulating the conditions of exports of a wide range of weapons, ammunition and related material cover to a sufficient degree the respective foreign trade area. The national control regime fully respects the imposition of an arms embargo in respect of persons and entities put on the lists of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1267 (1999).

The updated lists of the Security Council Committee established pursuant to resolution 1267 (1999) are forwarded to the respective competent authorities and published on Internet sites of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Czech Republic.
